

Organic flour

Popular by consumer demand and growth potential

Organic flour

The simple ingredient consumers can understand and trust.

Organic is on the menu and on the shelf. A significant 23% of Canadians are buying more organic than a year ago. Now, the total annual organic spend in this growing category is $7.5 billion.¹

Our organic flour is milled from high-quality organic wheat. It delivers consistent quality and performance every time. Additionally, it's certified organic and meets Canadian regulatory standards.

Ardent Mills is leading the way to meet growing customer and consumer demand for organic flour. Our farmer relationships and milling expertise enable us to deliver quality, consistency, scale and preferred contract pricing to our customers.
